Human Sexuality – Reel Representations
Course Syllabus

Class: May 15 – June 22, 2017 – Tuesdays and Thursdays, 11am-2pm

Location: Woodward IRC Room 6

Instructor: Dr. Brandy Wiebe

E-mail: brandy.wiebe@ubc.ca

Office: ANSO 156

Office Hours: 10:30-11 am in classroom or by appointment

TA: Kate Dalrymple

Course Description:

In this course we will explore a range of issues, debates and understandings of human sexuality from a primarily social psychological perspective. Using both the readings and a number of feature length films we will examine popular representations of human sexuality and our own values while expanding our knowledge of the various physical, emotional and social aspects of human sexuality. This class will include both theoretical and empirical explorations of topics encompassed by the theme of human sexuality. Discussion and debate will be central to this course so students will have a chance to reflect on their own values, attitudes and experiences in relation to class materials from various sources, lecture content and other students.

NOTE: All films contain adult content including explicit sexuality and language.

In five of the classes we will view a feature length film followed by approximately 60-90 minutes of lecture and discussion time. If there is insufficient time for a break before the film students will need to decide for themselves when to take this break during the screening. All other classes will consist of lecture, discussion and debate.

Course Readings:

Ryan, Christopher and Cacilda Jetha (2012) Sex at Dawn: How We Mate, Why We Stray, and What It Means For Modern Relationships. Harper Perennial.

AND

Woodford, Michael et al, "Contemporary Heterosexism on Campus and Psychological Distress Among LGBQ Students: The Mediating Role of Self-Acceptance," American Journal of Orthopsychiatry Online First Publication: August 2014: 1-21. ON CONNECT

Course Evaluation, Due Dates and Description:

Critical Paper Two: 20% Due in class Thursday, June 22

Exam 1, 30% Thursday, June 1 in class

This exam will consist of short answer questions and a long answer question for Sex at Dawn. It covers PART ONE-THREE of Sex at Dawn and all class materials (including films) from weeks 1-5. Instructions for the long answer question will be released on Connect the week prior to each exam. Discussion time will be held in class May 25, so ensure readings are done.

Exam 2, 30% Tuesday June 20 in class

This exam will consist of short answer questions and a long answer question for Sex at Dawn. It covers PART FOUR AND FIVE of Sex at Dawn, the Woodford et al. article and all class materials (including films) from weeks 7-9. Instructions for the long answer question will be released on Connect the week prior to each exam. Discussion time will be held in class June 8, so ensure readings are done.

Critical Paper, 2 x 20%, Due in class on Tuesday, June 6 and Thursday, June 22

Must not exceed 3 double spaced pages plus bibliography (12 pt Times New Roman font) The goal of this assignment is for you to critically engage with a human sexuality-related topic that interests you. Choose one of the three films we screened in classes 2-5 for the first paper and one of the three films from classes 7-12 and use it as a springboard from which you may explore any sexuality-related topic you chose. Use at least 1 peer-reviewed academic resource (excluding the assigned textbook) to critically explore and expand upon the topic you chose. It may be an issue, theme or debate in academic research on sexuality.

In this formal essay please include:

Introduction (4 marks)

- Introduce the issue, theme or debate (why is it important?)
- Clarify why you choose this topic
- Provide a clear thesis statement (what is the purpose of your essay?)
- Discuss the 'common sense' assumptions that people make about your topic

Critically explore your topic using academic sources (10 marks)

- Include at least 1 peer-reviewed academic journal article published since 2005 (or book chapters-only if passed by me).
- Provide an integrated discussion of your academic sources to reflect on the topic you chose

This is the most important part of the essay. This is a critical exploration of a topic not a film review, a reiteration of class discussions or an opinion paper!!

Conclusions (3 marks)

- Include a paragraph reflecting on how the research you conducted affected your view of this topic in light of the materials we have covered in class. How did your research make you think about human sexuality differently?

Style (3 marks)

- Reference in any style you are comfortable with but you must be CONSISTENT and thorough in its usage and include year and page for all references within the text.
- Writing skills (spelling, grammar, readability, etc.)

-Presented in a professional manner
Be sure to proofread your paper before handing it in!
Take notes to keep track of the information you gather so as not to plagiarize.

Course Policies:

Plagiarism is a serious, punishable offense and will not be tolerated.

Deadlines and Exam: These dates are firmly set and can only be negotiated in the case of unforeseen events (illness, funerals, etc). Documentation is required in the case of a missed exam or late paper. With documentation alternative arrangements will be discussed with the student. Without documentation late assignments will receive a deduction of 10% per day late (Saturday and Sunday 10% each) and missed exams will be given a mark of 0. Late assignments will not be accepted more than 7 days after their due date.

Submission of assignments: Papers assignments will be submitted as a hard copy in class. E-mails will not be accepted. Papers not given to me in person MUST be date and time stamped and submitted to the Main Office in ANSO. Assignments slipped under my door will not be accepted.

'Early Alert':

During the term, I will do my best to reach out and offer support if I am concerned about your academic performance or wellbeing. I also encourage you to come and speak with me if you need assistance. In addition, I may identify my concerns using Early Alert. The program allows academic, financial, or mental health concerns to be identified sooner and responded to in a more coordinated way. This provides you with the earliest possible connection to resources like academic advising, financial advising, counselling, or other resources and support to help you get back on track. The information is treated confidentially and is sent because I care about your academic success and wellbeing. For more information, please visit earlyalert.ubc.ca.
