

Friday, August 11th

Society for the Study of Social Problems (SSSP)

8:30am, Ph.D. candidate Natasha Stecy-Hildebrandt will be the presider in the session “Work-Family Policies,” as well as presenting her paper, Fathers’ Care in Context: Examining How Work Shapes Fathers’ Involvement in Care.

12:30, Prof. Deborah Dergousoff will be presenting her paper, Transnational NGOs as ‘Development Governance’: A Story from Kyrgyzstan, in the session “Institutional Ethnography and International Organizations.”

Saturday, August 12th

8:30am, Prof. Amin Ghaziani and Ph.D. student Adriana Brodyn will be presenting their paper, Performative Progressiveness in Gay Neighbourhoods, in the thematic session “LGBTQ Culture, Inequalities, and Social Inclusion” (cosponsored with Canadian Sociological Association).

SSSP

8:30am, Ph.D. candidate Cary Wu will be presenting his paper, International Students’ Post-Graduation Migration Plans and the Search for Home, in the session “Immigration and Mental Health.”

8:30am, graduate student Malou Windeler (University of British Columbia, Vancouver and Freie Universität Berlin, John F. Kennedy Institut) will be presenting her paper, (E)Valuating Knowledge and its Contemporary Challenges: The Case of San Francisco City College, in the session “Critical Dialogue: Higher Education in the 21st Century.”

10:30am, Ph.D. candidate David Champagne will be presenting his paper, California's Neoliberal Trajectory: Crisis, Environmental Injustice and Water Banking, in the section “Political Economy of the World-System Refereed Roundtable Session and Business Meeting.”

SSSP

12:30pm, Ph.D. candidate Nicole Malette will be presenting her paper, Contexts of Competition: Student Mental Health and Service Use Across Post-Secondary Institutions, in the roundtable “Knowledge and Memory,” as part of the session “Papers in the Round: Global.” Ph.D. candidate Lily Ivanova will also be presenting her paper, Bringing Political Conflicts into the Moral Sphere: Overcoming Normative Narratives and Inequality in Genocide Education, in the roundtable “Education.”

12:30pm, Honorary Professor Francesco Duina will be a discussant in the session “Free Trade Agreements, Governance Schemes and Municipal Democracy.”

2:30pm, Prof. Nathan Lauster and Ph.D. candidate Adam Yang will be presenting their paper, Home Without Borders: Extending Home into the Public Sphere, in the session “The Conditions of Home, Housing, and Household.”

2:30pm, Prof. Sinikka Elliott will be organizing the section “Race, Gender, and Class. Intersectionality and Social Justice,” as well as presenting here paper, Promises and Challenges of Intersectional Food Justice Research and Praxis (Co-written by Sarah Bowen, North Carolina State University; Joslyn Brenton, Ithaca College; Annie Hardison-Moody, North Carolina State University).

4:30pm, Prof. Rima Wilkes will be participating in the panel “Settler Colonialism and Indigenous Resurgence” (cosponsored with Canadian Sociological Association).

4:30pm, Ph.D. candidate Devra Waldman (Liu Scholar and PhD student in the School of Kinesiology) at UBC will be presenting her paper, Sporting Symbolism, Residential Development, and Postcolonial Complexities: The Building of Cricket-Focused Communities in India, in the session The Business of Sports: Labor, Capital and Globalization.

Sunday, August 13th

8:30am, Prof. Wendy Roth and Ph.D. candidate Kaitlyn Jaffe will be presenting their paper, Does Genetic Ancestry Testing Promote an Essentialized View of Race? Findings from a Randomized Controlled Trial, in the session “Race and Ethnicity: Boundaries and Classification.”

SSSP

8:30am, Prof. Nathan Lauster will be presenting his paper, The City as a Beaver Dam: A Canadian Perspective on Urban Development and Resistance, in the session “Critical Dialogue: Urban Redevelopment, Gentrification, and Resistance in Diverse Contexts.”

10:30am, Prof. Wendy Roth will be presenting her paper, Methodological Pitfalls of Measuring Race, or Some of its Dimensions, in the session “International Perspectives on the Measurement of Race and Ethnicity.”

10:30am, Prof. Seth Abrutyn will be organizing the session, “Advances in the Sociology of Emotions.”

10:30am, Ph.D. candidate Jing Zhao will be presenting her paper, Why do Chinese Americans Have More Children than Chinese Canadians?, in the section “Asia and Asian America Refereed Roundtable Session and Business Meeting.”

SSSP

12:30pm, Ph.D. candidate Valerie Berseth and Prof. Ralph Matthews will be presenting their paper, Contested Waters: An Analysis of Indigenous Participation in Canadian Fisheries and Oceans Management, in the session “Policies, Actions, and Environmental In/Justice.”

Monday, August 14th

10:30am, Prof. Seth Abrutyn will be presenting his paper, Durkheim and His Discontents: A Social Psychological, Emotional, and Cultural Re-Appraisal of Suicide, (co-written by Anna S. Mueller, The University of Chicago) in the session “Generations of Suicide: Understanding Cohort Differences in Suicide Risk.”

10:30am, Ph.D. candidate William Keats-Osborn will be presenting his paper, Structure and Practical Action in Literary Journalism, in the roundtable session “Journalism and Media across Contexts.”

10:30am, Prof. Yue Qian will be the presider of the session “Interracial Marriage/Assortive Mating,” as well as presenting her paper, Is Love Blind? Gender Differences in Mate Preferences among Online Daters in Shanghai (co-written by Yang Shen, Shanghai Jiaotong University).

10:30am, Prof. Nathan Lauster will be the presider over Table 09: Housing 1 in the section “Community and Urban Sociology Refereed Roundtable Session and Business Meeting” and Ph.D. student Zachary Hyde will be presenting his paper, Economy, Culture and the Role of Meaning in Public-Private Social Housing in Canadian Cities.

2:30pm, Ph.D. candidates Francois Joseph Lachapelle and Patrick John Burnett will be presenting their paper, The Rise and Stall of the Canadianization Movement: Inequalities among Canadian Professoriate, Evidences from 1977-2017, in the section “Science, Knowledge and Technology Refereed Roundtable Session and Business Meeting.”

2:30pm, Ph.D. candidate Hazel Hollingdale will be presenting her paper, Sheep in Wolf's Clothes: Gendered Organizational Culture and Undoing Structural Equity Initiatives in the Finance Sector, in the section “Sociology of Sex and Gender. Doing Gender: 30 Years Later.”

4:30pm, Prof. Sylvia Fuller will be presenting her paper, Variation in Net Fatherhood Wage Premiums across and within Establishments, (co-written by Lynn Prince Cooke, University of Bath) in the session “Big Data Applications in the Study of Inequality.”

4:30pm, Ph.D. candidate Adam Howe will be presenting his paper, Constructing Canadians: Indigenous and Settler Political Identities in Speeches from the Throne, 1867-2015, in the session “Indigenous Peoples.”

4:30pm, Ph.D. candidate Max Chewinski will be presenting his paper, Threads that Bind: Explaining Coordinated Action in Social Movements, in the session “Social Movements and Identity.”

4:30pm, Prof. Amy Hanser will be presenting her paper, The Hard Work of Feeding the Baby: Breastfeeding and Intensive Motherhood in Contemporary Urban China, (co-written by Jialin Camille Li, University of Illinois at Chicago) in the section “Sociology of Sex and Gender Refereed Roundtable Session and Business Meeting.”

6:30 -8:00 pm, UBC & UofT JOINT RECEPTION Palais des congrès de Montréal, 520D. Refreshments served.

Tuesday, August 15th

8:30am, Prof. David B. Tindall will be presenting his paper, Perceived Influence in Climate Change Policy Networks: The Effect of Social Network Position in the Canadian Case, (co-written by Mark C.J. Stoddart, Memorial University of Newfoundland) in the session “New Directions for Climate Action” (cosponsored with Canadian Sociological Association).

10:30am, Prof. Lindsey Richardson will be presenting her paper, Using Mixed Methods Experimental Policy Analysis to Identify and Address the Unintended Consequences of Policies to Reduce Social Inequalities in Health, in the regional spotlight session “Policies and Health Inequalities Around the Globe.”

10:30am, Ph.D. candidate Adriana Brodyn will be presenting her paper, Family Feuds: How Legal Changes Affect Media Discourses Concerning the Family, in the section “the Sociology of the Family Refereed Roundtable Session and Business Meeting.” Prof. Sinikka Elliott will also be presenting her paper, Under my Eye Watch: Mothers Raising Low-income Black Teenagers in Urban Environments, (co-written by Megan Reid, University of Wisconsin – Madison).

2:30pm, Ph.D. candidate Ryan Stillwagon will be the presider of the session “Social Capital,” and Prof. David B. Tindall will be a discussant.

2:30pm, Ph.D. student Kaitlyn Jaffe, Prof. Lindsey Richardson, Kanna Hayahsi (UBC), M-J Milloy (UBC) and Huiru Dong (BC Centre for Excellence in HIV/AIDs) will be presenting their paper, Informal Recycling, Income Generation and Risk: Health and Social Harms among People Who Use Drugs, in the section “Alcohol, Drugs, and Tobacco. Substance Use: Focus on Inequalities and Social Inclusion.”